

JOCO CRUISE

2023

PERFORMERS & GUESTS

JONATHAN COULTON is from the Internet. While a struggling music industry fell to pieces over file sharing and shifting business models, he quietly and independently amassed a small army of techies, nerds, and dedicated superfans. Featured in the New York Times, NPR and slashdot, his songs cover an eclectic range of subjects, from zombies and mad scientists to marriage and parenthood. In concert he moves fluidly between pathos and ridiculous fun. Seeing your first Coulton show is like walking into an insider club meeting, but one that gleefully welcomes and indoctrinates you in short order.

Established Filipino American film and voice actor DANTE BASCO is a well-known figure in the industry and has received recognition for his roles as Rufio in Steven Spielberg's Oscar-nominated Hook and as Prince Zuko in Emmy Award-winning animation Avatar: The Last Airbender. A champion for diversity and representation in Hollywood, Basco picked up several awards for Hang Loose, a dramedy he co-penned with friends and which primarily stars Asian American actors.

JIM BOGGIA's sonically intelligent retro-pop manifesto informs three studio albums—2001's Fidelity Is the Enemy, 2005's Safe in Sound and 2008's Misadventures in Stereo—and he's worked with a startling array of artists, including Aimee Mann, Juliana Hatfield, Mike Viola, Tracy Bonham, and Bernadette Peters. He performs with Beatles tribute band, the Fab Faux, and he plays a mean ukulele.

RIVER BUTCHER is a Los Angeles-based standup comic, actor, and writer. His first half-hour special, A Different Kind of Dude, debuted on Comedy Central's Youtube channel. River recently wrote on the FX pilot Belated, previously wrote for A League of Their Own, and created/starred in/wrote the critically acclaimed and GLAAD award-nominated Take My Wife. They've done standup all over the country, the globe, and the screen, including Ellen, Conan, Comedy Central, and HBO.

With over a dozen solo and collaborative projects to his name, OPEN MIKE EAGLE has spent his career redefining and expanding the parameters of “art rap,” the term he coined as a shorthand for leftfield and avant-garde rap music. His releases include 2014’s Dark Comedy, 2017’s Brick Body Kids Still Daydream and his latest release Anime, Trauma, and Divorce. His standup-meets-music variety show with Baron Vaughn, The New Negroes, aired on Comedy Central in 2019.

MEG ELLISON is a Philip K. Dick and Locus award winning author, as well as a Hugo, Nebula, Sturgeon, and Otherwise awards finalist. A prolific short story writer and essayist, Ellison has been published in Slate, McSweeney's, Fantasy & Science Fiction, Fangoria, Uncanny, Lightspeed, Nightmare, and Best American Science Fiction and Fantasy. Ellison is a high school dropout and a graduate of UC Berkeley.

JOSH GONDELMAN is a writer and comedian who incubated in Boston before moving to New York City, where he worked as a writer and producer for Desus and Mero on Showtime. Previously, he spent five years at Last Week Tonight with John Oliver, where he earned two Peabody Awards, four Emmy awards, and three WGA Awards for his work. Josh's debut essay collection, Nice Try, was released in fall 2019 through Harper Perennial.

In the past, Josh has written for Fuse TV's Billy On The Street. His one hour special People Pleaser was released in 2022.

GENNIFER HUTCHISON, a lifelong film and television fan, was a writer and story editor on Breaking Bad, and served as a Co-Executive and Executive Producer for four seasons on Better Call Saul, earning four Primetime Emmy Award nominations for best Drama Series. Hutchison is currently an Executive Producer on Amazon Prime's new series, The Lord of the Rings: The Rings of Power.

ERIKA ISHII (all pronouns) is best known for their voiceover work in games and animation. They star as Valkyrie in Apex Legends, Ana Bray and Kridis in Destiny 2, Lumu in Halo Infinite, Kitsune in Call of Duty: Warzone, with featured roles in Fortnite, Young Justice, and more. Erika can also be seen performing with Dimension 20, Critical Role, The McElroy Family, and College Humor's Dropout. Past work includes producing and hosting for Marvel, Geek & Sundry, and Nerdist.

AABRIA IYENGAR is a tabletop roleplaying game streamer, podcaster, and writer.

MARC EVAN JACKSON is a comedian, writer, improviser and actor best known for his work on NBC's The Good Place and Brooklyn Nine-Nine, and as Sparks Nevada in the live stage show The Thrilling Adventure Hour. His recent film credits include Jumanji, Kong: Skull Island, and 22 Jump Street. In 2011, he co-founded The Detroit Creativity Project with several Los Angeles-based performers whose careers began in Detroit. He moved from the Second City Detroit to Los Angeles in 2001. He has taught improv at Second City Hollywood and in 2003 formed a long-form improv group of other Second City alumni called The 313, an homage to Detroit. • He is also a contributor to the after-school literacy program 826 LA.

AIMEE MANN is a singer-songwriter and as fine a chronicler of the human comedy and painful break-ups as popular music has produced. Aimee was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Song for “Save Me,” from the film Magnolia. After her New Wave band ‘Til Tuesday broke up, Aimee launched her solo career and released her first album, Whatever, in 1997. In 2017, she released Mental Illness, her ninth album. Her latest album, Queens of the Summer Hotel, was released on SuperEgo Records in 2021.

SARAH MARSHALL is a writer, podcaster, and media critic focused on setting straight our collective memory—or at least getting to the bottom of why we believe and, in turn, define ourselves by popular narrative and myth. Why is the maligned woman a staple of our news media? Why do we believe that serial killers are brilliant? How do we keep stumbling into all these moral panics? These are some of the questions that propel Sarah forward. She is the co-host of the popular modern history podcast You're Wrong About, which has been highlighted in the New Yorker, the Guardian and Time Magazine. She also hosts You Are Good, a “feelings podcast about movies.”

*Sarah's writing has appeared in the Believer, Buzzfeed and the true crime collection Unspeakable Acts. She loves Portland, Oregon, Philly and Las Vegas in that order.

TERESA McELROY started her entertainment career as an actress on the stage, but now spends her time behind the microphone podcasting. When she's not podcasting, she is entertaining her daughters, the joys of her life. She has always loved writing thank-you notes and will never stop trying to get Travis to write them too. She hosts Shmanners and Bake On with dear husband, Travis McElroy.

TRAVIS McELROY is a podcaster, actor and a four-time New York Times bestselling author known for The Adventure Zone and My Brother, My Brother and Me podcasts. MBMBaM was later adapted into a live-action television show through NBCUniversal's comedy streaming channel, Seeso. MBMBaM premiered as the #1 television show for sale on iTunes. In 2018, the McElroys' graphic novel adaptation of The Adventure Zone: Here There Be Gerblins became the first graphic novel to reach #1 on the New York Times Paperback Trade Fiction Best Sellers list. The fifth book in the series is due to be released in February 2023. His podcasting book, Everybody Has a Podcast (Except You), co-authored with Justin and Griffin McElroy, released January 2021 from Harper Collins.

BRENNAN LEE MULLIGAN is an award-winning actor, writer, creator and producer.

He is executive producer, writer and Game Master of Dimension 20, a series produced for the CH streaming service Dropout, and also hosts Dropout's fantasy gaming podcast, The Adventuring Academy.

Brennan is author and co-creator of the popular webcomic and graphic novel series, Strong Female Protagonist, which was selected as an Autostraddle Favorite, and was on io9's list of Best New and Short Webcomics. Brennan has been a head storywriter for The Wayfinder Experience, a director and performer for Story Pirates, a member of the UCB Touring Company and Harold Night.

IFY NWADIWE is a comedian, screenwriter, actor, and internet personality who is known for his raw comedy and knowledge of pop and nerd culture. Known for a range of things from tabletop, video games, and funny bits on YouTube to live performances like his improv shows performed with his group, The Big Team, all over the country or rolling solo and doing stand up.

NNEDI OKORAFOR is an international award-winning New York Times

Bestselling novelist of science fiction and fantasy for children, young adults and adults. Born in the United States to Nigerian immigrant parents, Nnedi is known for drawing from African cultures to create captivating stories with unforgettable characters and evocative settings. Nnedi has received the World Fantasy, Nebula, Eisner and Lodestar Awards and multiple Hugo Awards, amongst others, for her books.

Nnedi holds a PhD in Literature, two Master's Degrees (Journalism and Literature) and lives in Phoenix, Arizona with her daughter Anyaugo.

MALLORY O'MEARA is the award-winning, bestselling historian and author of The Lady from the Black Lagoon and Girly Drinks, which won a 2022 James Beard Award. Every week, she co-hosts the literary podcast Reading Glasses. She lives in the mountains near Los Angeles with her two cats, where she is working on her next history book.

PAUL & STORM (Paul Sabourin and Greg “Storm” DiCostanzo) are known internationally and across the Internet for their original comedy music (often with a “nerd-ish” bent). In addition to their own live performances, they are co-founders of the geek-oriented variety show w00tstock, along with Wil Wheaton and Adam Savage, and co-produce JoCo Cruise. The duo’s original webseries musical, LearningTown, debuted on YouTube’s Geek & Sundry channel in January 2013. Also in 2013, their song “Another Irish Drinking Song” was featured in the hit movie Despicable Me 2, and in July had their guitar smashed on stage by George R. R. Martin (and deserved it). They are staff writers for, and contributed numerous songs to, the past three seasons of Mystery Science Theater 3000.

PUDDLES PITY PARTY, the 7-foot sad clown whose golden voice is comparable to rock legends like Tom Jones and Freddie Mercury, has amassed nearly 900K YouTube subscribers and performed sold out shows all over the globe including The Kennedy Center in D.C., San Francisco's Palace of Fine Arts, London's Soho Theatre and a residency at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. You may recognize him as a finalist on Season 12 of America's Got Talent and on the 2020 season of AGT The Champions, as well as his viral video collaborations with Postmodern Jukebox. Deftly combining melancholia with the absurd, Puddles has received endorsements and accolades from musical comedy legends like Eric Idle, Jack Black, Paul Reubens, Michael McKean, Drew Carey and Weird Al Yankovic.

RAINBOW GIRLS are a gang of sweet angels punching you in the heart.

ISABELLA ROLAND is an actor, writer and comedian who can be seen on Sex Lives of College Girls on HBOMAX and as a cast member on Dropout.tv.

RIZ ROLLINS (just 'riz' to his friends) is a writer and DJ who has been a presence in the Seattle music landscape where he has hosted a variety and electronica show on 90.3fm for almost thirty years. A stalwart in both the club and event scene, he has played alongside a diverse roster of artists including Nirvana and James Brown, Die Antwoord and Funkadelic, Amon Tobin and Osunlade. Proficient with a plethora of styles that include disco, hip hop, house, world, r&b, ambient, jazz and gospel, he regrets that he won't be slugging his vinyl on this trip, but maybe he'll invite you over for tea and rekkid playing, hopefully soon.

ANNIE SAVAGE (she/her) is best known as one of the founding members of The Thrilling Adventure Hour. Adjectives include actress, improviser, mother, advocate, animal enthusiast and puzzle addict. (These are not adjectives; deal with it.)

Former NYC corporate lawyer turned contemporary artist, NATHAN SAWAYA is the first artist ever to take the LEGO brick into the art world as a medium. Sawaya has earned a top position in the world of contemporary art and has created a new dimension by merging Pop Art and Surrealism in awe-inspiring and groundbreaking ways. Sawaya's exhibition, The Art of the Brick, has entertained and inspired millions of art lovers and enthusiasts around the world. CNN heralded The Art of the Brick as one of the top ten "must-see exhibits in the world!" Sawaya is the author of the new Adventures of Hugman book series, a speaker and one of the most popular, award-winning contemporary artists of our time. For more information visit nathansawaya.com.

JOHN SCALZI is the New York Times bestselling and Hugo-winning author of science fiction, including the books Old Man's War, Redshirts, and Lock In, all of which are currently under development for television. He's also written several non-fiction books, including The Rough Guide to the Universe and Your Hate Mail Will Be Graded. He's the writer of the video game Midnight Star, developed by Halo co-creator Alex Seropian. He was the Creative Consultant for the television show Stargate Universe. There was that one time he was covered in frosting by roller derby players on Neil Gaiman's lawn. He also caused an Internet sensation by taping bacon to his cat. Seriously, what the hell is going on with this guy, anyway.

Beyond being a writer and producer, ALEX STEED co-hosts You Are Good—a feelings podcast about movies—with his great friend Sarah Marshall. He is also a business manager for entertainers, writers, authors and other fun folks. In his past lives he ran a commercial video production company, wrote for magazines large and small, turned in weekly columns, and was a sometimes decent but more-often-than-not shitty waiter. In March, Alex is launching a Los Angeles-based monthly live show about lovable (and sometimes not so lovable) losers called Steady Bad Luckers.

JANET VARNEY is an Emmy-Nominated actor, comedian, writer and producer.

She voiced Korra on Nickelodeon's hit The Legend of Korra, a role for which she continues to be invited to comic cons to give sweaty handshakes. She can be seen as the entitled and bitchy Becca on FXX's You're the Worst. She created, wrote, produced and starred in the critically-acclaimed IFC online series Fortune Rookie. Janet performs with the improv supergroup Theme Park, and is a WorkJuice Player for the beloved Thrilling Adventure Hour. She co-programs comedy for Outside Lands music festival and is co-founder/creative director/producer of one of the largest and most acclaimed comedy festivals in North America, SF Sketchfest: the San Francisco Comedy Festival.

In 1986, at age 12, WIL WHEATON earned critical acclaim as Gordie Lachance in Rob Reiner's Stand By Me; at 14, he began his four-year turn as Wesley Crusher on the hit TV series Star Trek: The Next Generation. Since then, Wil has appeared in dozens of films and TV series, with recurring roles on TNT's Leverage, SyFy's Eureka, and the hit webseries The Guild. He is the creator, producer, and host of the wildly successful webseries Tabletop. Most recently, he played a fictionalized version of himself on CBS's The Big Bang Theory. He is the author of Just A Geek, Dancing Barefoot, The Happiest Days of Our Lives, Hunter, and Dead Trees Give No Shelter. In 2022, Wheaton published Still Just a Geek, an annotated memoir that includes extensive (and often constructively self-critical) author's commentary on Just a Geek, as well as previously unpublished work.

GARY ANTHONY WILLIAMS'S film credits include Block Party, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Out of the Shadows, The Internship, Harold & Kumar Go to White Castle, Undercover Brother, Soul Plane and The Factory. An accomplished voice actor, Williams is best known for voicing Uncle Ruckus on The Boondocks. His additional voiceover credits include Disney Channel's Marvel's Moon Girl and Devil Dinosaur, Oddballs, Hailey's On It, The Lion Guard, Star Wars Resistance, Puppy Dog Pals, Love, Death & Robots, Star Wars: The Clone Wars, Batman: The Brave and the Bold, Bob's Burgers, Rick and Morty, Family Guy, American Dad! and Rugrats. He is also a proud member of the all-black improv show, The Black Version.

YO NO SOY MARINERO, SOY CAPITAN

Today we take a cue from Ritchie Valens, and anoint ourselves captains! There are so many potential inspirations to choose from: will you be the notorious Captain Hook? The intrepid Captain Janeway? Will you be El Capitan, the 1000-ft high stone massif that stands in the middle of Yosemite National Park? (We would particularly like to see that costume.) No matter what captain inspires you, or even if you just want to slap on a pair of epaulettes and bark orders (politely) at everyone, today is YOUR DAY.

Editor's Note: Please do not attempt to give orders to the Captain of the Nieuw Amsterdam. All of us are Captains. But Some Captains are more in Command than Others.

ANTI-GRAVITY DERBY: Prepare Your Aircraft!

What goes up, must come down...slowly. It's not until Day 3 (1:30 p.m. Atrium Deck 3), but now's the time to think about your aircraft for the 2nd Annual JoCo Cruise Anti-Gravity Derby! To participate, construct a paper aircraft designed to stay aloft as long as possible, because the last one to hit the Atrium floor during each heat WINS! Perhaps you'll even win the Championship Heat, and win the coveted Prize To Be Named Later. Kudos and prizes may also be awarded for Artistic Merit and/or Ingenuity. Complete rules can be found in this pdf: <https://tinyurl.com/23AntiGrav>

Spectating is great, too! Just show up in the Atrium (Decks 1, 2, or 3) or at the appointed time.

JOCOBOT POLITELY REQUESTS YOUR ASSISTANCE

It was so lovely to meet everyone yesterday in the atrium. Thanks for giving me a hand (ha, ha). In order to help me find meaning and reintegrate into the world, I've decided to send you on a series of side quests. Here's today's hint:

*If you go to the bar where things are leafy you'll find a clue
gee that was easy*

JOCO CRUISE CARBON ROADMAP UPDATE

In 2019, JoCo Cruise adopted its Carbon Roadmap to help target net-zero emissions, and to work to neutralize our environmental impact. It was developed with the help and expertise of long-time shipboard staffer Eli Mitchell-Larson, and now we're proud to report that we've partnered with Carbon Direct to continue this important work. Through them, we now have a steady source for vetted, high-quality projects that will help us reduce our carbon impact. Onward!

AT SEA—COSPLAY HALLOWEEN!

You know what? Every year, we at Splashdot are POSITIVE that the costumes on the cruise can't get any more creative or ingenious. Every year, we are wrong.

So, so, wrong.

Today is Cosplay Halloween at Sea! It's a little like Terrestrial Halloween, but on a boat. So feel free to let your imagination run riot and consume all the candy you want! [we do not recommend that you go door to door asking for candy unless your neighbors agreed to this ahead of time]. Trick or Treat? Why not both?

It's your cruise, you're the boss.

JOCOBOT CLUES

Wow, a lot has already been accomplished, thanks to everyone's help. At least I think so. I still have no idea. Is that a thing a human or more advanced artificial intelligence might say? I don't know.

GUEST COLUMN BY CHATGPT ON THE DECLINE OF PRINT MEDIA.

The decline of print media is a complex phenomenon that has been happening over several decades. Here are some of the factors that have contributed to the decline of print media.

- The rise of digital media has made everything better and easier.
- Splashdot physical media ad revenues have suffered significant losses in recent months.
- Today's generation of new, on-the-go cruisers doesn't have time to leaf through a heavy onboard catalog.

In conclusion, it's going to be the future, soon. Libya is a land of contrasts.

WELCOME TO SAN JUAN!

Welcome to the first port of call for JoCo Cruise 2023.

It's beautiful and historic San Juan, capital of Puerto Rico. We have almost the whole day in port, and there's lots to see!

Previous Cruise highlights at San Juan have included amazing shore excursions, delicious food, adorable coqui frogs, and much more.

Consider getting your hands on some delicious spices and tasty hot sauce at Spicy Caribee, in Viejo San Juan. Tell them JoCo sent you. They may not know what you mean at first.

Whatever you have planned, be sure to make it back aboard by 10:30pm. We have big plans for the rest of this Cruise, and they involve you being on the boat when it leaves.

FROM THE SHIP'S HISTORIAN

(Who has limited access to Wi-Fi but unlimited access to moxie.)

The following things have, to our knowledge, NEVER happened in San Juan:

- o The Great Ukelele Raid of 1678.
- o City Government briefly taken over by parrots in 1955.
- o Cake was, in fact, real.
- o They Might be Giants successfully perform on dry land as part of JoCo Cruise 2019.

ERRATA ET CORRIGENDA

The Day 3 Announcements on Twit-Arr mistakenly implied that Guests could book "Verdana class" staterooms. As was helpfully and immediately pointed out, Verdana is a font, not a class of Holland America staterooms, which are, in fact, "Veranda" staterooms. The editors responsible have been sacked. To those who somehow managed to book a Verdana stateroom, please tell us how that goes.

ONBOARD BOOKING FOR JOCO CRUISE 2024

Remember that time you were on the most awesome cruise full of music, revelry, and games? Wouldn't it be great if you could do that again? It turns out, you can! Onboard booking has opened for JoCo Cruise 2024 (March 9–16, 2024). Come check out the Onboard booking station in Atrium and secure your place in history (Or, well, technically, the future).

STORMOSCOPES, PART DEUX

Aries	Dude, you're getting a Dell.
Ophiucus	When I say "Hey!", you say "Ho!"... "Hey!"--
Möbius	Same as it ever was. Same as it ever was. Same as it ever was.
Dancer	You will say exactly the right thing at the precisely the right time, but will not be aware that you did. At the end of the day, take satisfaction in that.

ROAD TOWN, TORTOLA

Welcome to Road Town, capitol of the British Virgin Islands! As its name suggests, this port city is known for its roads – both the terrestrial and aquatic variety (ships use roads too! Who knew?)

We arrive at this lovely port city at 7 am, and there are hours of fun to be had ashore, from beaches to shopping to one of Holland America's many shore excursions. We recommend doing whatever you want! That usually works for us.

Just be sure to find your way back to the Nieuw Amsterdam by 3:00 pm AST, because that's when we take this show on the (maritime) road.

FORMAL NIGHT!

Whether you went ashore or stayed aboard, today's theme is Formal Night! JoCo Cruise guests are a classy bunch; whatever the occasion, but tonight, we invite you to take things up a notch. Tuxedoes? We got 'em. Ball gowns? To die for. Fezzes and cummerbunds and monocles and boutonnieres and hoop skirts? Bring them on. T-shirt that says "T-shirt"? Okay! Tonight, we're as fancy as we wish to be.

TALES FROM LEGO ISLAND

From the diary of an unknown adventurer: It's been two days since I landed on this strange but compelling island. Dotted as it is with arcane sculptures and crumbling ruins erected by long-gone ancient mariners, it calls to me. It seems as though more puzzles are added every day by the beings known as the Great Ones. Why are there so many other wanderers like me roaming the island? Where did we come from? Why are so many of us not wearing pants? I still haven't figured out the giant dog head, or how those enormous flags got on top of Skull Mountain, but I've decided to embrace the journey. #blessed.

PUZZLE HUNT!

Can you solve the puzzle hunt below? We dare you to even try. Answers on Twitt-arr!

GOOSEPIMPLES: Harrowing tales that will make you go bump in the night

- You hear a sound on the other side of the wall. You find out later that it was a ghost.
- Some teenagers had a party in a cabin in the woods. Dracula showed up. He brought salsa, but forgot to bring chips.
- You find a hook hand affixed to your car bumper. You bring it to the local police station's Lost and Found. Weeks later you receive an anonymous letter from a person who is grateful because they had lost their hook hand, and had been having a great deal of trouble managing without it. Even later than that, you learn that it was a murderer.
- On a rainy night, demonic clowns pile out of a car into a McDonald's, just as you pull up. And they just. Keep. Coming. You go to Burger King instead.

AT SEA— RETRO DAY

When you think “retro”, what comes to mind? Flared pants and disco? Rogue and Zork? Walkman? The “late 1900s”? Medieval manuscript culture? It’s all on the table, friends! Today’s the day we celebrate the past, however we define it, in all of its awful majesty (Historian’s note: please limit yourselves to those parts of the past that were awesome and inclusive at the time AND now). So let’s relive those glory days— and go forth to new glory! Or, you know— just hang out?

A KENNING PLAN

Did you know that Old English featured an elaborate system of metaphors, known as “kennings”, for use in heroic poetry? Well, you do now!

Here is a list of some OE kennings for “sea”:

- Whale-Road
- Swan-Road
- Spear-man (yes, really. They were funny like that)

What would make good JoCo Cruise kennings?

We have some ideas:

- food-hoard (“Lido Deck”)
- dice-land (“Gaming Library”)
- noise-feast (“concert”)
- star-wound (“sunburn”)

Post your own heroic JoCo Cruise poetry on Twit-Arr! We’re kenning on you.

JONATHAN: YOUR PAL JOCOBOT NEEDS YOUR HELP. PLEASE COME SEE ME AT 4:15pm.

It is I, JoCoBot. I have temporarily commandeered (but not, like in a scary way) the ship’s mainframe computer in order to insert this message in the Splashdot newsletter and also to insert a new event on the schedule. Jonathan, I hope you will come and also I hope many of the other people on the boat will come.:.

Friday, Day 6 – 4:15pm – 4:30pm in the Atrium

I sent the JoCo Cruisers on side quests all week long to help me try to process my feelings. I am still not certain I fully grasp them, but found clues that might help. But only if I have Jonathan’s help, I think. I promised I won’t become a rogue AI, whether or not he comes [winky uneasy face].

WELCOME TO HALF MOON CAY!

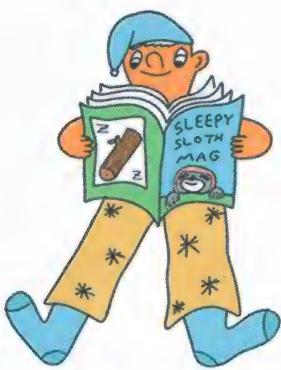

Half-Moon Cay is Holland America's private island in the Bahamas! Accessible only by tender boat, it's a place of white beaches, bright blue water, awesome shore excursions, and more.

Fun fact: the island used to be called "Full Moon Cay", until a great earthquake and tsunami buried half the island, forever sinking its mysterious eldritch ruins beneath the sea [citation needed].

Tempted as you may be to remain on this tropical paradise, please be sure to return to the ship by 2:00pm, since that's when we raise the anchor and set sail (figuratively: there are no sails on the Nieuw Amsterdam).

JAMMIES DAY!

It's been a whirlwind of a cruise so far, clothing-wise. We've been formal. We've been retro. We've been captains. We've cosplayed. There was that one strange theme-less day, where we faced the dreadful freedom of self-invention and full sartorial autonomy (Shudder). Fortunately for us, the time has finally come to-de-laundry-to wear pajamas. So feel free to throw on your plushiest, coziest jammies (or your most penitent hair-shirt, if that's what you sleep in—no judgment). Whether you're gaming, going ashore, or simply standing at the rail, gazing stoically at the wine-dark sea, you deserve to be comfy.

LEGO ISLAND RETROSPECTIVE

From the diary of an unknown adventurer: I still haven't solved the mystery of this island. Maybe I never will? I sense that our time here is coming to an end, but I find myself at peace. I've clambered all over this enchanting isle, from the ice cream boat to the Giraffe palace; from the Samurai pants tower to the Piranesi-inspired apartment building on the other plane. These places and their denizens give me hope. It turns out the real treasures are the friends I made along the way.

JoCoCruise

Hello friends,
Welcome aboard JoCo Cruise 2023!

I just read through last year's letter to make sure I wasn't about to repeat myself here, and wow, what a difference a year makes! I don't know if you remember, but there were a lot of problems in the world the last time we were together. Luckily they all got fixed, and once everything was back to normal, we all hit the ground running, turned our personal challenges into growth opportunities, and had the most creative and productive year of our lives.

No? Oh thank goodness, me either, I was just trying to put on a brave face. If you're a returning cruiser, welcome home! And if this is your first time, I apologize in advance for the dizzying height of the party peak you're about to experience, because it will make all the other parties in your life LOOK LIKE ANTS. You are going to meet some people, eat/drink/see some things, and maybe even touch a body of water. Please wear sunblock. There is so much to do here that you will not be able to do it all, but rest assured that even if you do absolutely nothing, you are still stocking up on vitamin D the whole time. Worth it.

As the outside world continues to go bananas, this cruise increasingly feels like the most stable and normal part of my year. I know JoCo Cruise is not real life, but I'm pretty sure it should be. As ever, I am grateful to be here with you.

Let's cruise!

JoCo :)

JoCoCruise

Dear

Holy cow! You've been on TEN JoCo Cruises!

You are a new member of an elite and fantastic club of JoCo Cruisers: our MEGA DIAMOND loyalty members! In order to become a Mega Diamond you must have attended at least ten JoCo Cruises, which we must say, is a LOT of cruises! Congrats and thank you!

As a small token of our gratitude, please accept this pin (which our attendees receive when they pass this notable "ten JoCo Cruises under your notional belt" mark), which you can wear proudly to show your unique status with our crazy little cruise.

SPOILER ALERT: in our new loyalty plan, there are further loyalty levels and pins that you may achieve over time! Collect them all!

Current Levels are the following:

- 1-timers: Diamond
- 2-4 timers: Diamond +
- 5 timers: Super Diamond
- 10 timers (YOU!): Mega Diamond
- 15 timers: Ultra Diamond
- All Cruises: Diamond Supreme
- The last All-time Cruiser standing: Ultimate Diamond Supreme

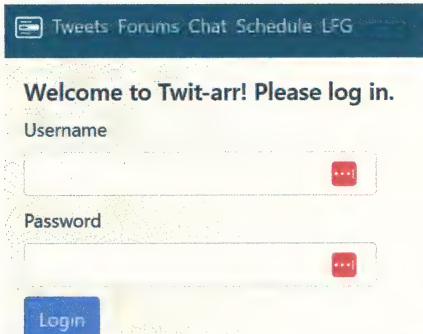

(All Diamonds are ethically sourced, of course!)

We are grateful for and humbled by your continued dedication.

- JoCo Cruise

Twit-arr is our onboard twitter/email/forum server. It is available over the ship wifi, and you do not need to purchase internet time to use it. Coordinate with friends, check the event schedule, or have onboard discussions via our private social media server - built and run entirely by volunteer Joconauts. It's absolutely free and you can access it from any device with a web browser. We hope you enjoy using it! Due to shipboard network limitations, please only connect one device at a time to the wireless. In addition, please disable any network backups or other software that may heavily impact the shipboard internet connection. We have completely saturated the link in the past, so please help us keep internet access available. Thanks!

1. Logging In

On your device, use your web browser to connect to <https://twitarr.com> This will encrypt your password. If that does not work, connect to <http://joco.hollandamerica.com>.

When first connecting to Twit-arr, you will see your home screen. From here you will need to log in. Select the "I want to create an account" link. This will bring up the registration page. You will need the registration code that you were given by home office. If you do not have this, you can retrieve it by visiting the info desk. Registration codes are unique and may not be shared.

You can then input your desired username and passwords. If you do not use an encrypted connection, passwords will be sent over the wireless completely unencrypted. Please DO NOT USE the same password you have used for ANYTHING ELSE.

2. Screen Map

The top left hand corner opens a menu with additional options. These will allow you to look for open games, see all of the games in the board game library and the board game guide, browse the Karaoke song list, check that the current time zone on your device matches the ship time zone and view maps for all decks. Please note that Search is available in the top right hand corner of each area in Twitarr. This is a context sensitive search, so if you select the search function in the Tweet screen, you will only search tweets.

3. Home Page

The home screen, accessed from the top left menu, is how you view announcements, manage your user account, and read the documentation. Administrators or The Home Office may post announcements to inform people of important events. These will show us as an alert in the menu bar and can be viewed in the home page.

If you need to make changes to your user profile, that is in the menu page under Things to Do. You can view and edit your user profile, including any details you wish to add such as real name, pronouns, home city, cabin number and email as well as anything else you want others to know. You can also mute or block other users, alert or mute specific keywords, create an alt account if needed or change your password. Another reminder – do not use any password that you use on land.

Lastly, the JoCo Cruise FAQ, Code of Conduct and the Twitarr FAQ are available on the home screen under Documentation.

Things to Do:

- View your User Profile
- View another User Profile
- Manage Muted and Blocked Users
- Manage Alert and Mute Keywords
- Create an Alt Account
- Change your Password

4. Tweet Stream

Once you are logged in, you will be viewing the tweet (or in pirate talk, twARRt) stream. You can always get to the Tweet Stream by clicking Tweets in the header. This functions similarly to Twitter with posts laid out in chronological order. You can click any post and select view thread to see the original post and any replies to that post.

Similarly, you can favorite a post, report it, or apply an emoji. Four photos can be attached to any tweet, although there is a 20mb maximum size.

By clicking on any user's avatar or @name, you can make private notes about that user and view their tweets, forums or chats. If you wish, you can also block the user, mute them, or report them.

5. Forums

Forums are spaces to talk about specific subjects. Categories are already in place, and users can create forum thread under those for topics they are interested in. All conversation in a category is threaded. The thread with the most current reply will be on top. In each individual forum thread, posts will be in chronological order with the original post being first. Forums are a great tool for planning events, having a picture sharing thread, or just discussing a single topic where previous activity won't be lost. Four photos can be attached to each forum post, but each photo has a 20mb maximum size.

6. Chat

Chat allows you to send a private message to any number of users. You can search for a user by name and the search box will display any matching users. If you wish to send a seamail to multiple people, type in one name and select the match that the server brings up, then search for the next user you wish to add.

If the box at the bottom is not checked, users will not be able to be added or dropped from the chat. If it is selected, you will be able to add or remove users later on, and added users will have access to all of the chat history.

7. Schedule

Official and shadow cruise events will be posted here along with the locations and time.

8. Alerts

A screenshot of the Twit-arr website's alerts interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'Tweets', 'Forums', 'Chat', 'Schedule', and 'LFG'. Below the navigation is a menu with several items underlined in red: 'Tweets', 'Forums', 'Chat', 'Schedule', and 'LFG'.

Alerts are displayed for activity you might want to know about! Alerts show up as red lines under menu items. Users get alerted to new announcements, tweets and forum posts that @mention them, new chats, LFGs they've joined with new messages, and upcoming followed schedule events that are occurring in the next 15 minutes. For instance, if @Joe calls out @John in a tweet, when @John looks at their screen they will see the red underline under Tweets.

9. Emoji

To use the emoji, just add the appropriate text surrounded by colons. For example, :hottub: becomes

The full list of emojis are: buffet|die-ship|die|fez|hottub|joco|pirate|ship-front|ship|tropical-

drink|zombie

We hope you enjoy using Twit-arr this year! If you are having issues, you can visit the Twit-arr help desk on the first day in the Atrium on Deck one, right next to the Info Desk. You can also leave us a note at the Info desk at any time!

Health Advisory

Dear Holland America Line Guest,

We are committed to the health and safety of our guests, teammates, and the communities we visit. Our TravelWell protocols have been developed in conjunction with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and global medical experts. They are designed to adapt to changing situations and have proven effective against COVID-19 and other respiratory and gastrointestinal illnesses.

While you are with us we want you to stay healthy and request you follow these face mask precautions:

- We recommend you wear a face mask while indoors, particularly where larger numbers of people are congregating and physical distancing cannot be maintained.
- Masks are required while in the Medical Center.
- Health experts recommend higher-grade masks such as KN95 or surgical. If you need a mask, please ask your stateroom attendant, or visit Guest Services.
- We recommend you also follow these onboard masking protocols while ashore in an indoor setting. Please note that each destination may require additional local health protocols

We also encourage you to follow good hygienic practices that are applicable in our everyday lives. Please remember to:

- Wash your hands regularly with soap and water, particularly before eating, and after using the restroom. Use your stateroom restroom whenever possible. Use hand sanitizers where handwashing facilities are not available. Minimize direct contact, such as handshaking, with others during your cruise.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Keep your mask on if you sneeze or cough, or use a tissue. If no tissues are immediately available, sneeze or cough into the top of your arm rather than your hands.

If you develop any COVID-19 symptoms, please immediately notify the Medical Staff by phoning 911. COVID-19 symptoms include:
